Have you...

1. Included at least three facts in the Al Capone report to support your writing? _____
2. Used '30s specific terminology in the Al Capone report to make the story seem authentic? _____
3. Attached your Data Retrieval Chart from the Gallery Walk for your participation points for the lesson? _____
4. Found your two/three photos to write about from the Chicago political conventions of 1932?

If all of these are checked with a yes, then have a great, great day and I'll see you tomorrow!
